

Homecub branding guidelines.

Homecub is a mobile and web application for searching, buying, and selling residential real estate. The application's main intent is to solve the problem of property viewing scheduling between seller and buyer.

This requires access to up to date real estate listing data searchable by location, pricing, square footage, rooms, and all other available parameters.

Homecub